Cats are famous for their independent habits. Today's generation of pet cats are enjoying the complete freedom they crave with their very own cat pet door! They come in and out and roam the yard at will, just like cats were born to do. Yes, pet doors are no longer just for the dogs. You can give your cat the liberty and pursuit of happiness that only unfettered personal access can provide. Give your pet the gift of free access to the outdoors. Pet Door Products manufactures today's state-of-the-art energy-efficient cat pet door.

A cat door for a sliding glass door, window, entry door, or wall mount opens up a world of opportunities for your cat to enjoy the beautiful outdoors!

Cat Door Benefits

The Pet Door Products sliding glass cat door and window-mount cat door designs are innovative newer pet access options that are inserted directly into your sliding glass door panel or window. The ultra-modern, sleek, high-performance cat doors are engineered for energy efficiency and long-term durability. Our traditional cat doors for wall or entry door installation are also very popular. Just some of the benefits of giving your cat his or her own special access to your home include:

- Your cat is free to come in and out without needing you to open the door.
- You are free from continuously going to open the door for your pet.
- Your customized cat door fits smoothly into your existing sliding door frame or window.

- Pet Door Products cat doors offer maximum energy efficiency.
- Cat door installation is convenient and quick, done in less than an hour by our professional.
- The Endura Flap is the highest quality cat door cover on the market today.
- Your sliding glass door operates as usual, with your cat door installed.
- The cat door insert for sliding glass doors is more aesthetically attractive for curb appeal.

The revolutionary Pet Door Products sliding glass cat door and window-mount cat doors are available in many sizes to fit virtually any place you may want to locate your pet door.
